International Humanitarian Law: Born on the battlefield

Tuesday, January 17th 2022 | from 10:00 AM – 01:00 PM (PT)/ 01:00 PM - 04:00 PM (ET)

International Humanitarian Law and the Red Cross Movement were both born on the battlefield. This three-hour course discusses the beginnings of the Red Cross Movement and the birth of modern International Humanitarian Law. At the conclusion of the course, participants will not only be able to analyze the legality of actions in armed conflicts, they will also understand the role the Red Cross Movement has played in the development of International Humanitarian Law. Please join us virtually for the International Humanitarian Law: Born on the Battlefield class with instructors Liz Dietz and Larry Dietz (NCCR) through Microsoft Teams.

Discussion Group (Third Thursday of the month)

Thursday, January 19th 2022 | from 02:00 PM - 03:30 PM (PT) / 05:00-6:30 PM (ET)

Discussion on: " LAST WILDEST PLACE: Indigenous rights and extractive industries in the Peruvian Amazon "

Jason Houston is a Photographer and Filmmaker who is better known as a conservation photographer. The Purús/Manu region in southeastern Peru is one of the most remote and inaccessible areas of the Amazon, threatened by the full list of extractive activities, risking devastating, often irrevocable, impacts on the ecosystems and all who depend on them. Join Jason Houston virtually in this interesting and meaningful discussion on LAST WILDEST PLACE.
